

THE GASLIGHT GAZETTE

HOWDY, AND WELCOME TO ALL!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

So nice to see everyone at our March Meeting. The room was full and the food was great.

Rita started the meeting off with the last Minutes and then Rick brought the meeting to order and lots of topics were discussed. We will be looking at several different places to hold our meetings and each month a new one will be announced, so keep your eyes Open for the email about the location for May.

The first event we have coming up is on April 9th The Redneck Car show is being held in Stanton. We do have a few spaces left for the club so if you'd like to attend please let Rick know. They are expecting over 200 cars at the event. There is a flier attached with More information. Sounds like a great time with lots of really nice prizes.

On April 17 the club is going to the Settles Hotel for Easter Bruch at 1 pm. If you'd like to attend please contact Rick so he will know you plan to go. We will be meeting at Big Spring and Loop 250. It will be lots of fun for everyone.

April 23 is the Great Road Race in Fort Stockton. Some of the members are going to work a gate at the event and watch all the great drivers and cars as they race by. A really Special event to watch and get to attend thanks to Brad Daley.

April 28 is the start of the Pate Swap meet weekend. There are still some hotel rooms left as well as spots to work the car coral. This is a huge event and so much to see, if you have never been you should really try to go. It's a car persons dream world of parts, cars and all kinds of junk to go through.

We did continue on with Jerry Owens GOOD OLE DAYS topic. Ron Backer brought up Maynor G. Crabbs form the 1950 and 60 Dobie Gillis . Bob Denver who was in Dobie Gillis also played Gilligan. It was a very interesting Conversation among everyone. Seems Shaggy from Scooby Doo was also taken from Bob Denver and how he looked.

One topic that was discussed is that David Diffie has resigned as Vice President. Ron Backer was nominated for the position and he accepted and it was voted on and accepted by the members. Welcome to our New Vice President Ron Backer. Ron is working on the Grande Ole Tour location and is very excited about it. More on that will be coming up.

If you have a car or parts or anything you'd like to sell there is a place on our website that You can add these too, just let Rita know and she can take care of it for you.

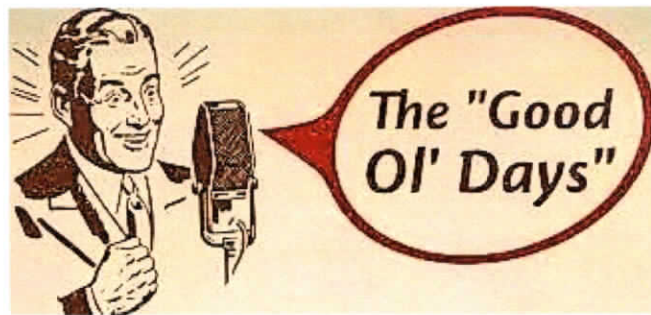

Hope everyone has great April and see you next meeting in May.

Dobie Gillis and Maynard G.Krebs

Dobie Gillis (Dwayne Hickman, left), Maynard G. Krebs (Bob Denver, right), and one of Dobie's "many loves", Yvette LeBlanc (Danielle De Metz), in a still from the Dobie Gillis episode "Parlez-Vous English", originally aired December 27, 1960

The series revolved around teenager Dobie Gillis (Dwayne Hickman), who aspired to have popularity, money, and the attention of beautiful and unattainable girls.¹ He did not have any of these qualities in abundance, and the tiny crises surrounding Dobie's lack of success made the story in each weekly episode. Also constantly in question, by Dobie and others, was Dobie's future, as the boy proved to be a poor student and an aimless drifter.

His sidekick and de facto best friend was American television's first beatnik, Maynard G. Krebs (Bob Denver), who became the series' breakout character. An enthusiastic fan of jazz music (with a strong distaste for the music of Lawrence Welk), Maynard plays the bongos, collects tinfoil and petrified frogs, and steers clear of romance, authority figures, and work (yelping "Work?!" every time he hears the word). Always speaking with the vernacular and slang of the beatniks and jazz musicians he admired, Maynard punctuates his sentences with the word "like" and has a tendency towards malapropisms. The main running gag on Dobie Gillis would have Dobie or one of the other characters rattling off a series of adjectives describing something undesirable or disgusting ("I'd be a ragged, useless, dirty wreck!"), at which point a previously unseen Maynard would appear (entering the scene in close-up), saying "You rang?"

Dobie Gillis is set in Central City, a fictitious city in the Midwestern United States (the original short stories are explicitly set in the Minneapolis–Saint Paul area).
